Before reading

- Look at the cover and read the title.
- Possible discussion questions: "What do you think Danny is thinking about in the picture? How do you think he is feeling?"

Look through all the pictures

- Using the language in the story, discuss each photograph in the book. Notice details in the pictures and use that information to better understand the text.
- Help the children find any tricky words in the text: buy and worry. Discuss meaning, word structure, and sounds you expect to hear in those words. Have children clap and count the syllables.

Reading the text

- Have the children read the text independently. While they're reading, listen to and prompt each student to use meaning, structure, and visual information to figure out words, self-correct, or improve expression.
- Children should be able to track print with their eyes, move quickly through the text, and read fluently while paying attention to punctuation, except at point of difficulty.

After reading

- Discuss the meaning, structure, and letter cues that you notice students using correctly.
- Literal comprehension: The answers are in the text. Ask, "What time does Danny eat dinner? What time was it when Danny finally got to eat his dinner?" Have students read the pages that support their answers.

- Inferential comprehension: The answers are in your head. Ask, "How do you think Dad felt when he realized there was no more food for Danny? How would you feel if you had to eat the same thing for dinner everyday?"

Word work

- Have the students locate the high-frequency words in the text and practice writing them.
- Point out the apostrophe in the words there's, don't, I'll, and I'm. Explain that there's is a contraction that means there is, don't means do not, I'll means I will, and I'm means I am.
- Find and discuss the rhyming sets: you-do-to, so-no-oh, and for-more-store.
- Point out the quotation marks, question marks, and exclamation marks throughout the text.

Rereading for fluency

- Have the child(ren) read the story again aloud, listening for phrased, fluent oral reading that includes appropriate pausing, intonation and word stress.

Writing activity

- Have each student elaborate on the text by adding what happened next after Danny ate his dinner. Then have the students draw a picture that corresponds to what they have written.
