Look through all the pictures

- Using the language in the story, discuss what the little raccoon is doing in each photograph.
- Have the children find the words that may be new to them: raccoon, climb, and yard. Clap and count the syllables.

Reading the text

- Have the children read the text independently. Encourage them to read it again if they finish before the others in the group.
- While they're reading, listen to each student individually and prompt them to use meaning, structure, and letter cues at difficulty. Praise the successful use of reading cues.
- Make sure the children can match (with their finger) or track (with their eyes) each word of the text.

After reading

- Discuss the meaning, structure, and letter cues that you noticed students using correctly at difficulty.
- Literal comprehension: The answers are in the text. Ask, "The little raccoon can hide and run. What else can it do?" Have students read the pages that support their answers.

- Inferential comprehension: The answers are in your head. Ask, "Why do you think the little raccoon got into the trash? Where do you think the little raccoon goes at nighttime?"

Word work

- Have the students locate the high-frequency words in the text and practice writing them.
- Discuss all of the things the raccoon likes to do in the story: climb, hide, and run.

Rereading for fluency

- Have the children read the story again, either independently or with a partner.
- Use this opportunity to listen to each child and again prompt for strategy use at difficulty.

Writing activity

- Have students write and complete the sentence: "The little raccoon likes to _____." Then have them draw a picture that corresponds to what they have written.
- Encourage the use of proper punctuation and independent attempts to spell words correctly.
