All of the titles in the MaryRuth Books Guided Reading Collections have been submitted to Fountas and Pinnell for their independent assessment and leveling, based on the F&P Text Level Gradient™. When viewing our catalog or website, you may see varying levels listed for some titles. When placing a text along a gradient of difficulty, many factors are considered and reading professionals do not always agree completely on the level for a book. In order to be as accurate as possible, we have included evaluations from different recognized experts, resulting in multiple levels for some titles. Levels are approximate indicators of text difficulty and are intended to serve as guides only. Teachers should use their own experience and observations when selecting the right book to provide a successful reading experience for each individual student.
