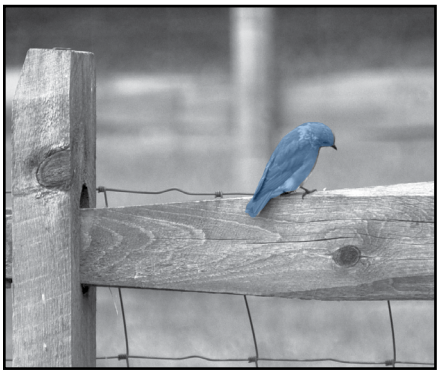
I am going to look for birds.

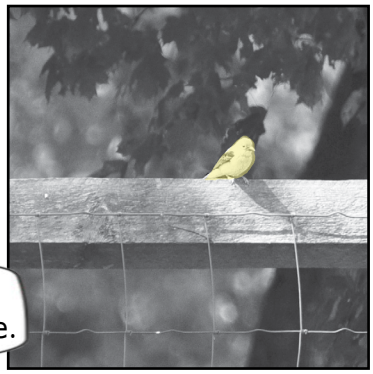
I stop.
I look.
I listen.

I see a blue bird sitting on the fence.



I see a red bird sitting on the fence.

I see a yellow bird sitting on the fence.



I look up.
I see a BIG black bird flying away.

I like looking for birds.
I am a scientist.
I am an ornithologist.

Ornithologist Danny

In Ornithologist Danny, Danny looks at all of the birds in his yard.

What birds did Danny see on the fence?

Danny saw

_____ ,

_____ , and

_____ .

What bird did Danny see flying through the air?

Danny saw

_____ .

Circle all of the color words in the book. (Hint: There are four.)

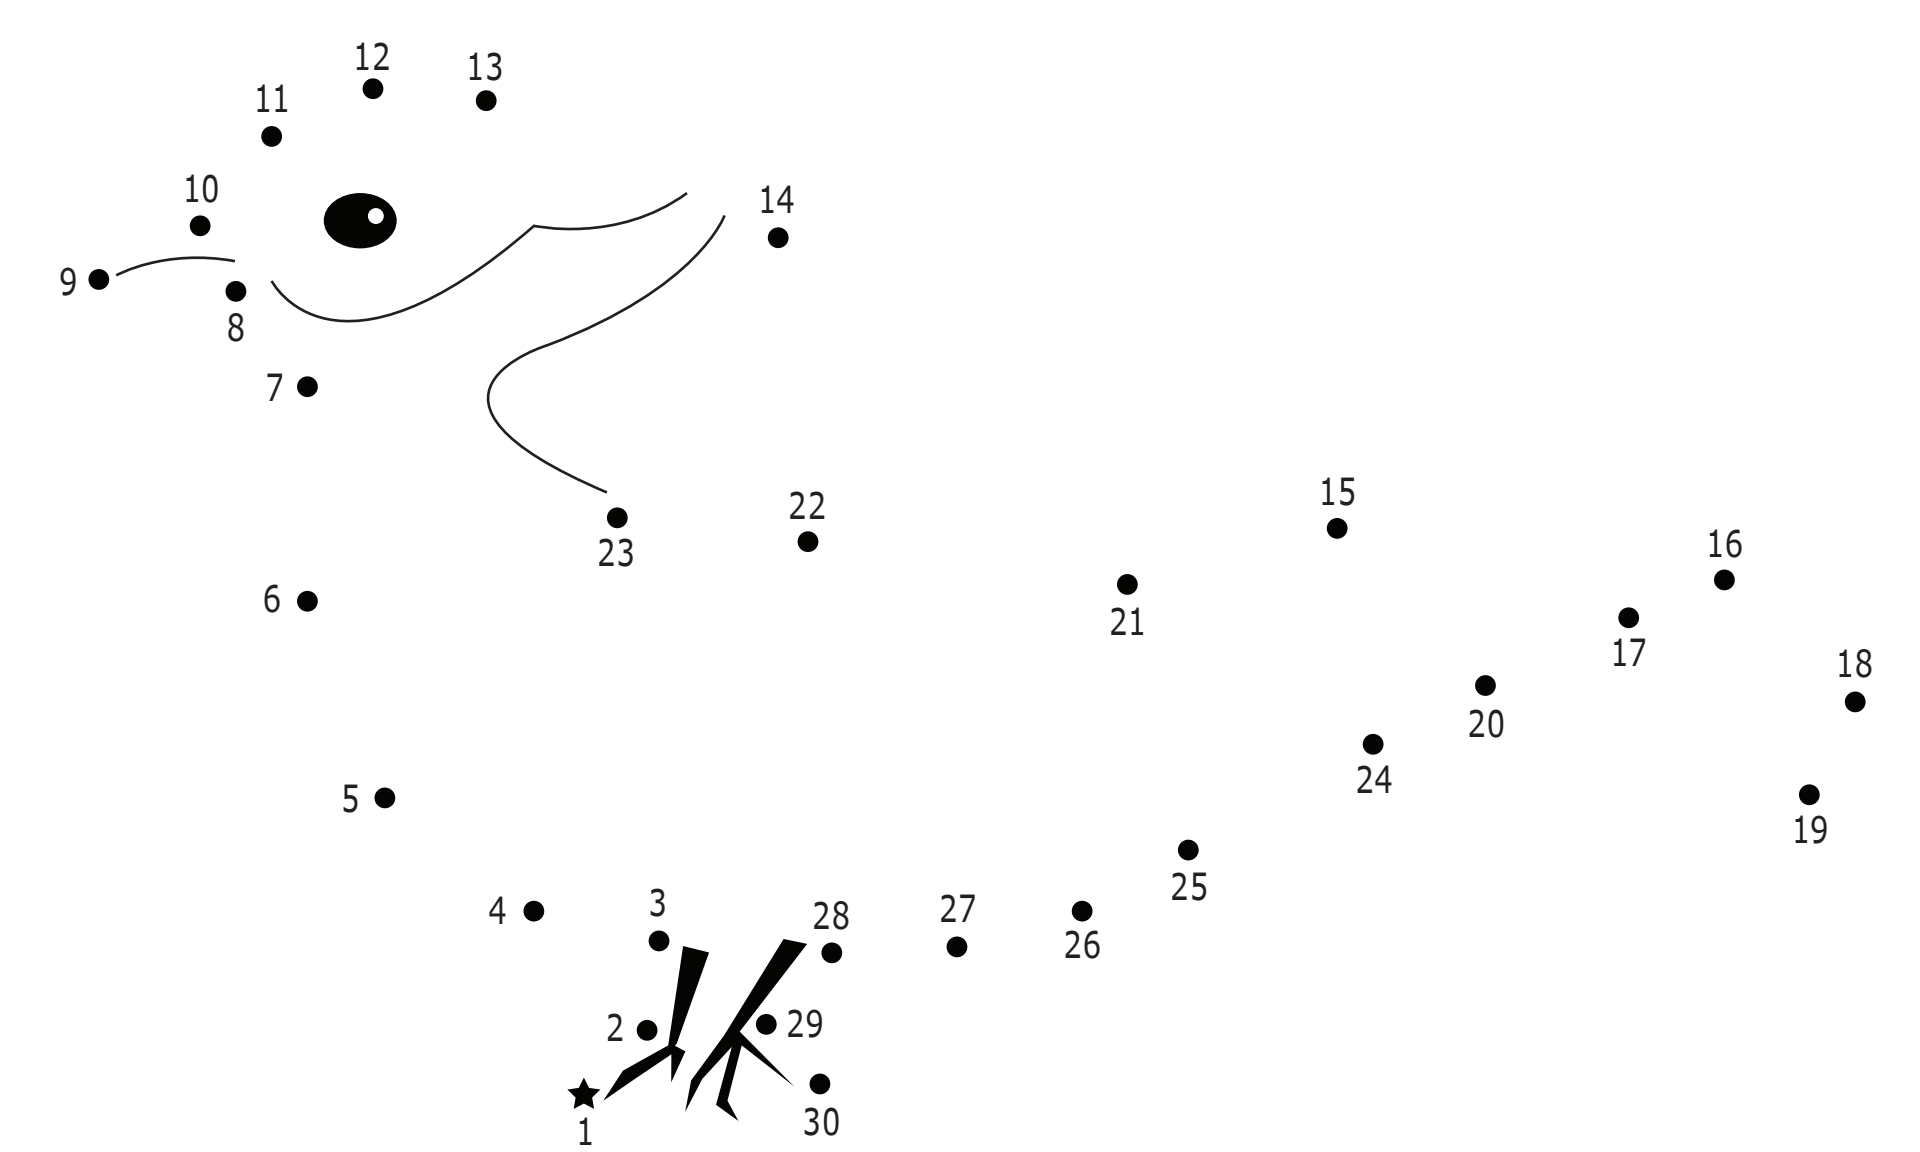
Look out your window and see if you can find any birds.
Say the colors of the birds that you see in your yard.

Complete the sentence:

I see a _____ bird in my yard.

On the back of this paper, draw a picture of the birds that you see outside your window.

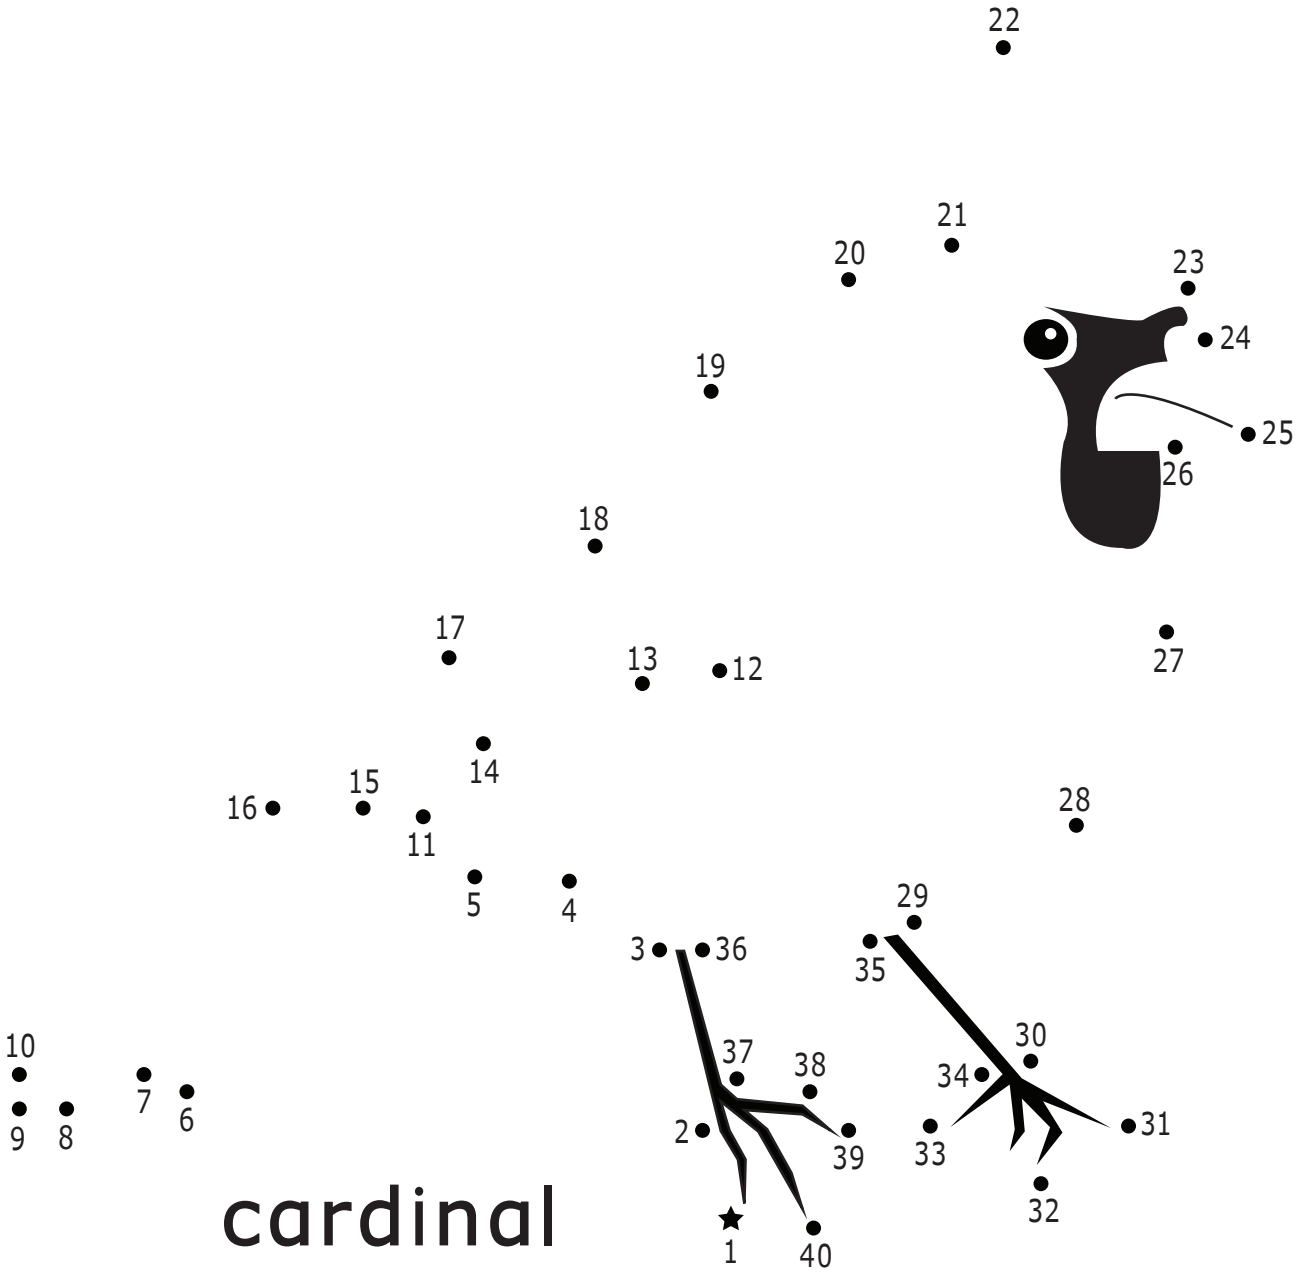
© MaryRuth Books



bluebird

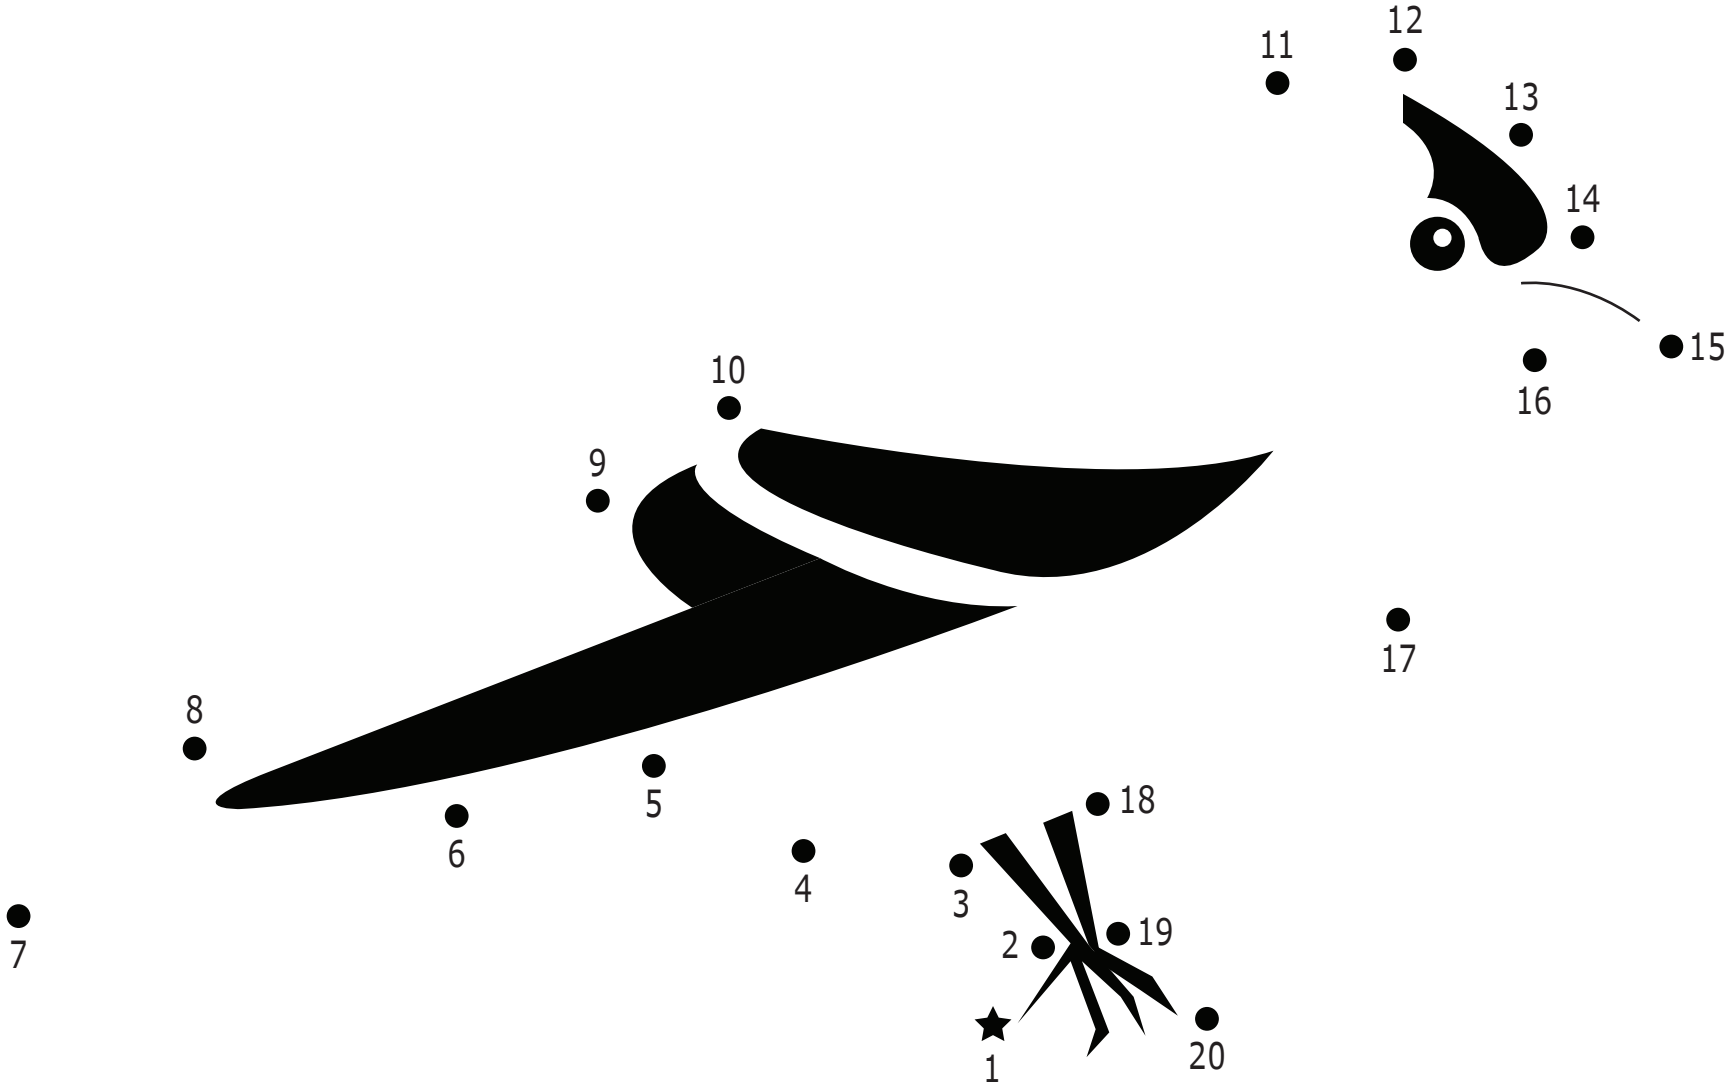
In Ornithologist Danny, Danny looks for birds in his yard. Danny is an ornithologist -- a scientist that studies birds.

Starting at the star ★, draw a line to connect each number together in order. Then, color the birds that Danny saw in his yard.



In Ornithologist Danny, Danny looks for birds in his yard. Danny is an ornithologist -- a scientist that studies birds.

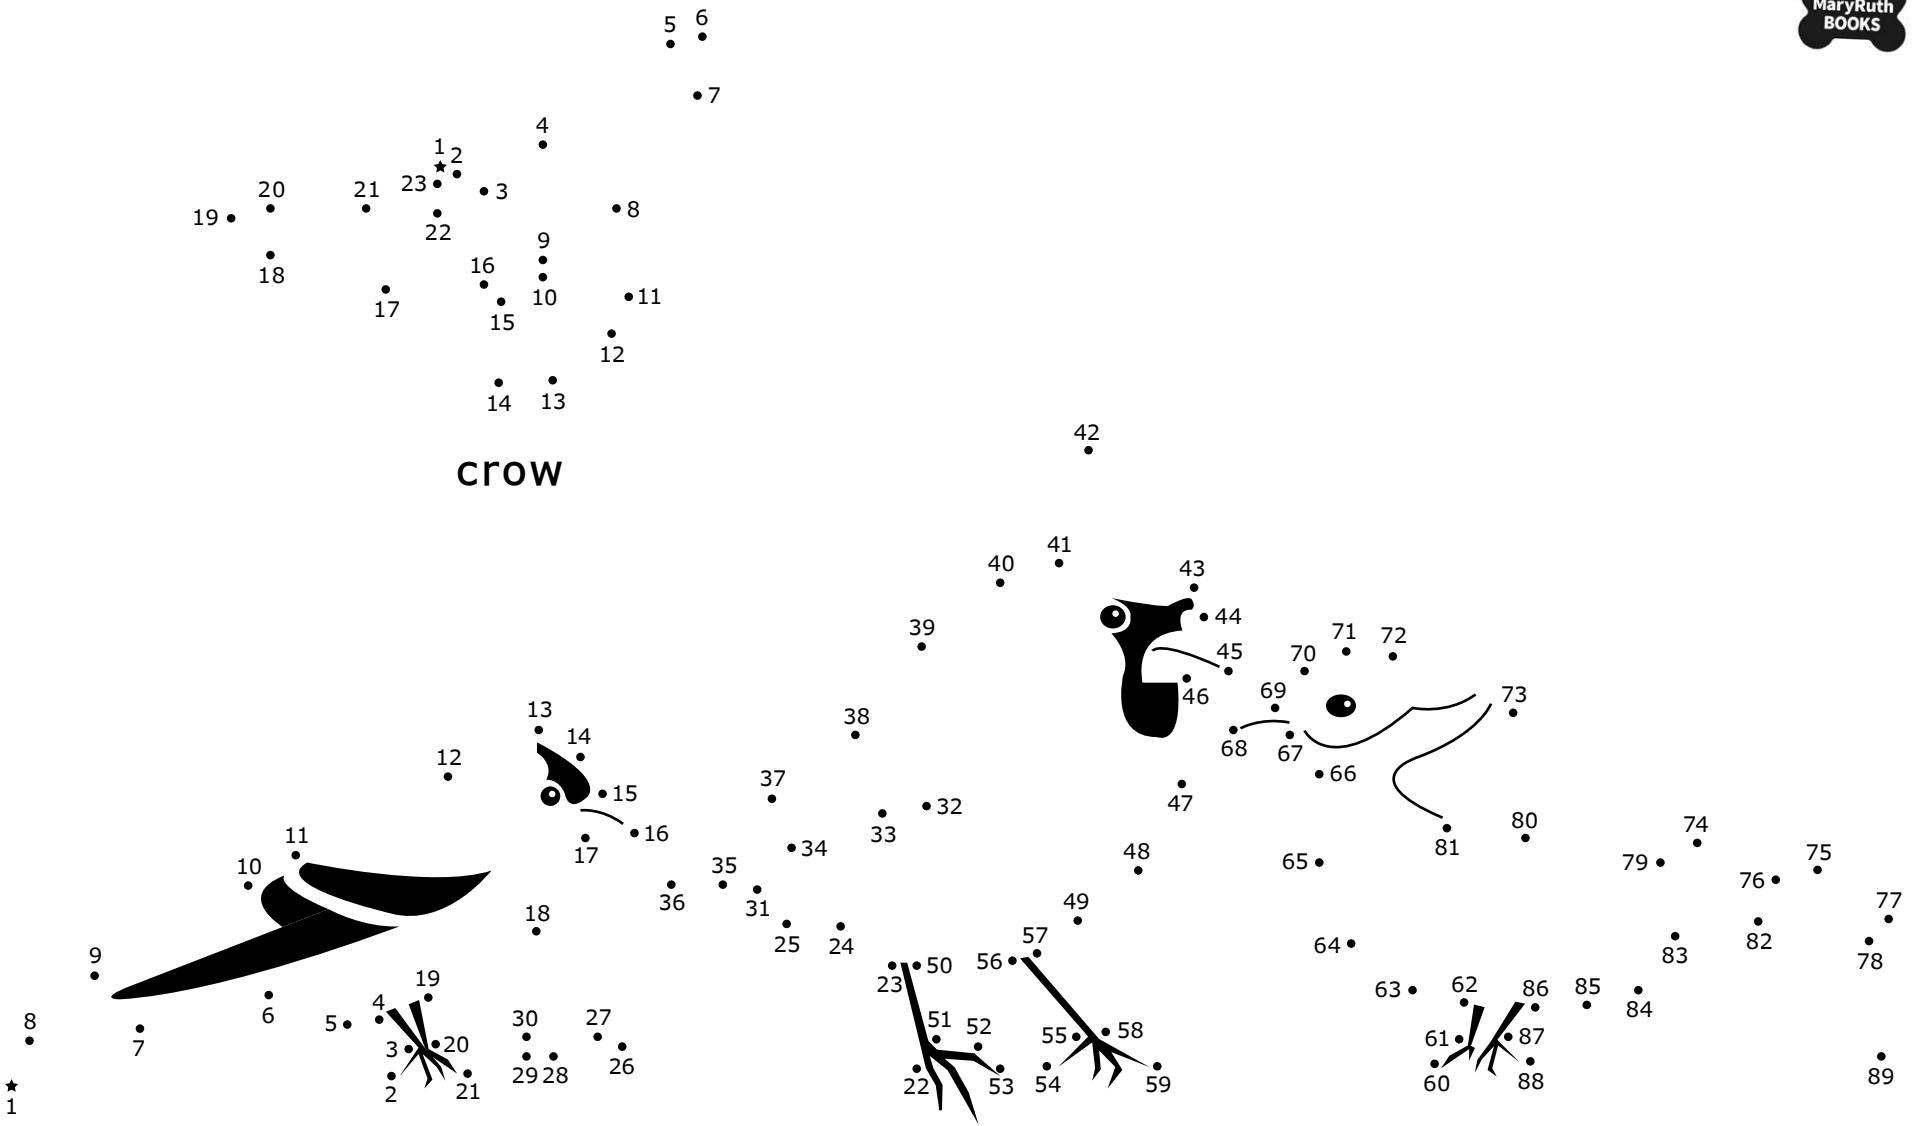
Starting at the star ★, draw a line to connect each number together in order. Then, color the birds that Danny saw in his yard.



goldfinch

In Ornithologist Danny, Danny looks for birds in his yard. Danny is an ornithologist -- a scientist that studies birds.

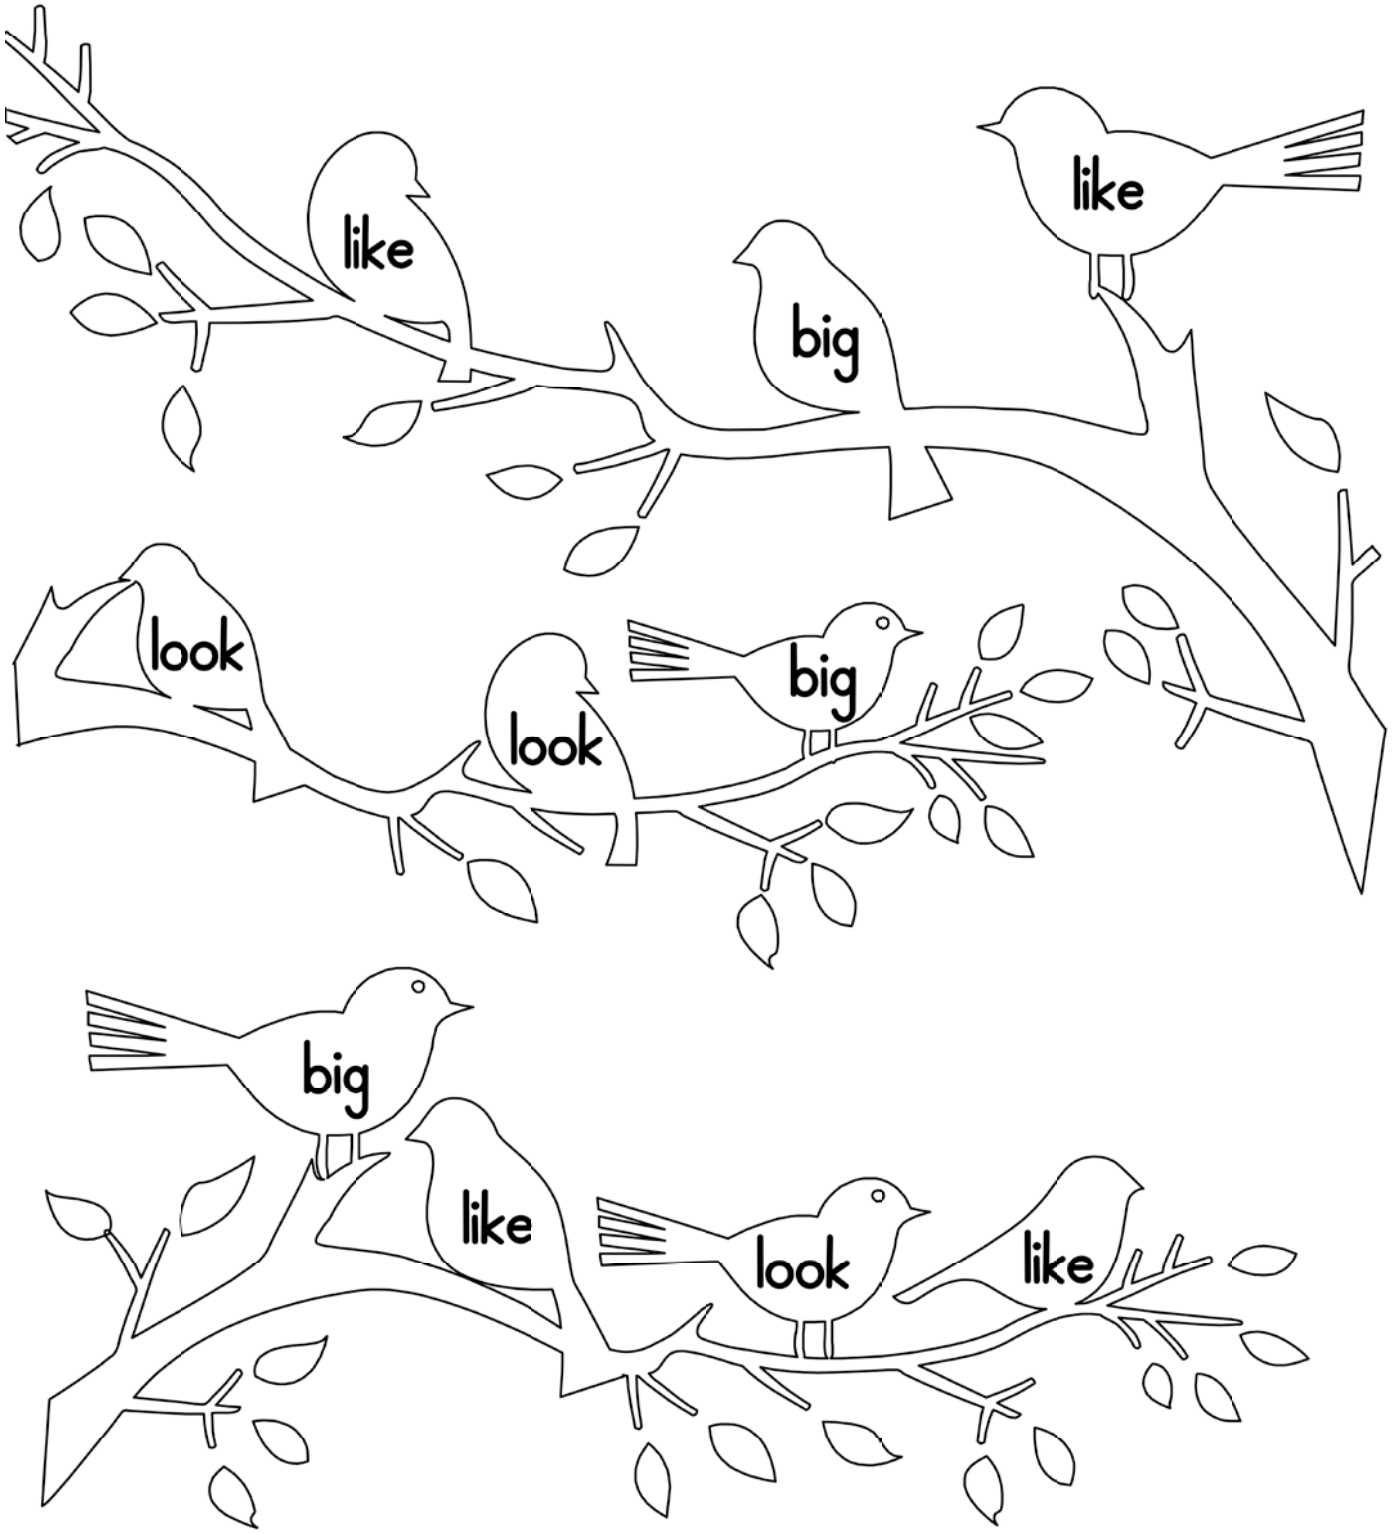
Starting at the star ★, draw a line to connect each number together in order. Then, color the birds that Danny saw in his yard.



In Ornithologist Danny, Danny looks for birds in his yard. Danny is an ornithologist -- a scientist that studies birds.

Starting at the star ★, draw a line to connect each number together in order. Then, color the birds that Danny saw in his yard.

© MaryRuth Books

name _____


Color coding: like = yellow look = blue big = red