LIMERICK POEM

Limerick Poems are five lines long, can be written about anything, and are usually funny. Lines 1, 2, and 5 rhyme and have 8 to 9 syllables. Lines 3 and 4 rhyme and have 5 to 6 syllables. Limerick Poems have a specific rhythm or meter. The pattern they use has two unstressed syllables followed by a stressed syllable.

Use the suggestions below to write a Limerick Poem of your own.

- Choose a person, place, or thing as the topic for your Limerick Poem. Most Limericks begin with There once was a... or There was a... Danny's poem starts with One day... Brainstorm ideas for the first line of your poem.
- 2. Make lists of rhyming words for your Limerick Poem. Remember that the last words in lines 1, 2, and 5 rhyme and the last words in lines 3 and 4 rhyme.
- 3. Think about the flow of your poem. Lines 1, 2, and 5 should sound like: da DUM de de DUM de de DUM. Lines 3 and 4 should sound like: da DUM de de DUM.
- 4. Write your finished Limerick on the other side of this paper. Cut out your poem and glue it into your Poetry Notebook.
- 5. What else can you do with your Limerick Poem?
 - Illustrate your poem.
 - As a classroom or on your own, create a book or calendar of Limerick Poems.
 - Have a Poetry Slam where each student reads a poem out loud to the rest of the class.
 - Share your poems with us! Share your poem on our Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter pages at @MaryRuthBooks or by email to admin@maryruthbooks.com.
