

Giddy Up Word Ladder

Danny likes to visit the horses on the farm. Start at the top with the word giddy. Read and follow the directions beside each white box to add, subtract, or change letters. Each clue will also give you a hint about the meaning of the new word. Write the new word in the box. Work your way down the list to get to the word up. Then, read Horse Colors or A Lucky Pony.

giddy

Start here.

This is what you say to get a horse to move.

Change the gi to bu at the beginning.

Another name for a friend or pal.

Take away the dy at the end.

The part of a plant that grows into a leaf or a flower.

Change the b to m at the beginning.

A mixture of dirt and water; pigs roll in this to keep cool.

Change the u to a in the middle.

The opposite of glad; rhymes with sad.

Change the d to p at the end.

Norman and Danny followed this to get to the park.

Change the a to o in the middle.

What is used to clean the floor.

Change the m to c at the beginning.

Another word for a policeman or policewoman.

Change the o to u in the middle.

This holds juice or milk.

up

Take away the letter c at the beginning.

The opposite of down.