

Pig Pen Word Ladder

A pigpen is an enclosed place where pigs are kept on a farm. Start at the top with the word pig. Read and follow the directions beside each white box to add, subtract, or change letters. Each clue will also give you a hint about the meaning of the new word. Write the new word in the box. Work your way down the list to get to the word pen. Then, read Pigs or Little Pig Gets Stuck.

pig

Start here.

An animal that lives on a farm and enjoys being in the mud.

Change the p to w at the beginning.

*A covering for the head
made of real or artificial hair.*

Change the w to b at the beginning.

*The opposite of small;
Danny is this, compared to Bee.*

Change the b to z at the beginning.

*A sharp change of direction;
is partnered with the word zag.*

Change the i to a in the middle.

*A sharp change of direction;
is partnered with the word zig.*

Change the z to w at the beginning.

*Danny does this with his tail
when he is happy.*

Change the w to t at the beginning.

A chasing game that Danny and Abby play with Dad in the backyard.

Change the g to n at the end.

The light yellowish brown color of Danny's fur.

Change the a to e in the middle.

*The number of pennies in a dime;
five dogs plus five dogs gives you this number of dogs.*

pen

Change the t to p at the beginning.

*This is used for writing, drawing,
or signing your name.*