After reading

- Discuss the meaning, structure, and letter cues that you notice students using correctly.
- Literal comprehension: The answers are in the text. Ask, "Who is chasing the mouse? Who is chasing the cat? What happens to little pig?" Have students read the pages that support their answers.

- Inferential comprehension: The answers are in your head. Ask, "Why did the mouse run into the house? What would have happened if that cat had caught the mouse? What could have happened if little pig hadn't gotten stuck?"

Word work

- Have students locate the high-frequency words in the text and practice writing them.
- Help the students locate and clap the two-syllable words: little, resting, and running.

Rereading for fluency

- Have the children read the story again, either independently or with a partner.
- Use this opportunity to listen to each child and again prompt for strategy use at difficulty.

Writing activity

- Have each student write and complete the following sentences: "The cat is in the house. The pig is in the ____." Then have them draw a picture that corresponds to what they have written.
- Encourage the use of punctuation and independent attempts to spell words correctly.

FUN FACT

How fast can a pig run?

Pigs are sprinters and can attain their top speed in just a few strides.

Domestic pigs average a top speed of about 11 miles per hour.

Teaching Points: Introducing new words; Practicing rhyming words; Finding and clapping two-syllable words; Rereading.

The Farm

Level B / 56 words / informational text

High frequency words:

a, am, at, I, look, me

Before reading

- Look at the cover and read the title.
- Possible discussion questions: "Have you ever been to a farm? What animals live on a farm?"

Look through all the pictures

- Using the language in the story, discuss the animal in each picture and what the animal is saying.
- Help the children find and read the word look in the text.
- Help the children find the animal words in the text: cat, cow, donkey, goat, horse, pig, rooster, and sheep.

Reading the text

- Have the children read the text independently. Encourage them to read it again if they finish before the others in the group.
- While they're reading, listen to each student individually and prompt them to use meaning, structure, and letter cues at difficulty. Praise the successful use of reading cues.
- Make sure the children can match (with their finger) or track (with their eyes) each word of the text.

FUN FACT

Farm animals are domesticated. This means they are tame and kept by people as work animals, as a food source, or as pets.

After reading

- Discuss the meaning, structure, and letter cues that you noticed students using correctly at difficulty.
- Literal comprehension: The answers are in the text. Ask, "Name one of the farm animals that is in the book. Find the page about that animal and read it aloud."
- Inferential comprehension: The answers are in your head. Ask students to name other animals, not in the book, that might live on a farm.

Word work

- Have students locate the high-frequency words in the text and practice writing them.

Rereading for fluency

- Have the children read the story again, either independently or with a partner. Use this opportunity to listen to each student and prompt for strategy use at difficulty.

Writing activity

- Have students complete the following sentences, using the previously generated list of animals that might live on a farm: "Look at me. I am a _____." Then have the students draw a picture that corresponds to what they have written.
- Encourage the use of punctuation and independent attempts to spell words correctly.

Teaching Points: Using meaning to connect pictures to text; Finding and clapping two-syllable words; Introducing animal words in text; Introducing the farm.
